Spanish Fork City Sesquicentennial

1855-2005

A press conference will be held at the Spanish Fork City Center on Thursday January 6. At the press conference, members of the City's Arts Council will detail the many festivities that will occur throughout 2005 commemorating this historic year. Be looking for more information in following newsletters and on the City website. There will be a "Historic Display" at the City Center from January 19th through February 17th.

City Calendar

Many citizens have grown to love the Spanish Fork City Calendar that is produced each year. The calendar should be ready for distribution by the middle of January. Please be patient with the City as we complete the calendar

January 2005

Happy New Year...

As 2004 comes to a close, we can look back and see many great accomplishments achieved during the year. One such accomplishment can be found out at the Sports Complex on Volunteer Drive. If you haven't been out to the ballpark lately, I encourage you to visit area. The facility boasts a new parking lot and playground equipment that will enhance the capabilities of the park. The City also completed the first phase of our trail system at the Sports Complex. This phase of the trail runs along the Spanish Fork River and is open for all to enjoy. As you walk, jog or ride along the trail, take advantage of the picnic tables set back amongst the trees. I invite you to utilize this great new addition to our City's recreational opportunities.

As we are the community of Pride and Progress we anxiously look forward to 2005 and the many opportunities that will arise this year. This will be a historic year as the City celebrates its 150th birthday. With activities scheduled throughout the year, I invite all to participate and help to make this a fun-filled year to remember. We will also see many great additions to our locally owned Spanish
